Article 1: Non-Aggression

- (i) Both Parties agree not to engage in any form of aggression, including: military attacks; espionage; any hostile actions or intentions directed at each other.
- (ii) Neither Party's citizens can attempt to harm, kill, or pearl the others' citizens without prior conversation in diplomacy channels unless those individuals are on land they are banned from, and only with the permission of the local government.
- (iii) Neither Party will extradite a citizen (or "player") of the other Party to a third nation or authority without first engaging in diplomatic talks between the two Parties to resolve the matter.

Article 2: Ratification, Amendments, and Termination

- (i) This Treaty must be ratified by each Party according to their own legal processes.
- (ii) Any changes or amendments to this Treaty must be agreed upon in writing by both Parties. Changes will take effect once both Parties have ratified the amendment.
- (iii) If the Parties cannot resolve disputes peacefully, the non-aggression pact may be terminated.
- (iv) Either Party may terminate this Treaty by giving written notice to the other Party. The termination will take effect one week after the notice is given.

Schedule 2: The Senate shall re-affirm the effect of the “Exyria, Non-Aggression Pact” treaty upon the ratification of this Bill and of the ratification of the same treaty within Exyria’s own legislative process.
