

The Tribune Amendment

Schedule 1. Replace Article II. Citizenship (e) Consuls of the Constitution with the following

(e) Consul

Rights: Eligible to own a private vault within Icenia (location must be approved by the Secretary of Defense, Secretary of the Interior, and President). Eligible to serve as a Tribune.

Requirements: Must hold the title of Equestrian. Must complete a second large public works project. Must be approved via an Enhanced Senate Motion. Must be approved by the President and the Secretary of Defense. Must have served as either a Senator or Secretary for at least three terms. Must renounce all foreign citizenships or attachments.

Schedule 2. Append the following to Article IV. Government of the Constitution

(e) Tribunes

The Tribunes will be appointed by the President, the Secretary of Defense or the Speaker of the Senate for the term of 4 months to be their advisers and aides.

The Tribunes will be permitted access to the Senate. Their appointment will be nullified should they take office as a Senator or a Secretary.

The Tribunes can be impeached by a unanimous vote among the Presidents, the Secretary of Defense and the Speaker of the Senate.

Schedule 3. Add the following clause to the Bloom Statehood Agreement:

The State of Bloom is guaranteed Senate access via a monthly elected by the State representative with no voting powers. Should a bill vote result in a tie, the representative may cast a vote on the behalf of the State.

Schedule 4. Add the following clause to the Icarus Statehood Agreement:

The State of Icarus is guaranteed Senate access via a monthly elected by the State representative with no voting powers. Should a bill vote result in a tie, the representative may cast a vote on the behalf of the State.